SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION:

- The McAlister Scholarship is sponsored by the McAlister Foundation, The Walker Foundation, and the SC School for the Deaf and the Blind.
- It is a four-year scholarship designed for deaf and hard of hearing students who have a need for financial assistance to attend college.
- The scholarship may be used at any four-year state college within South Carolina.
- The amount of the scholarship will be determined each year based on the total amount of funding received by the recipient from all sources applicable for covering tuition, fees, and dormitory room and board.
- The scholarship will be renewed each semester provided the recipient:
  1) receives the grades required to remain in college, and
  2) continues to meet the requirements of this scholarship.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

An applicant must:

- Be deaf or hard of hearing as evidenced by an audiogram
- Be a resident of South Carolina
- Be a graduate or upcoming graduate of the SC School for the Deaf and the Blind or have received services through the SC School for the Deaf and the Blind Outreach Program
- Demonstrate that he or she has a SC high school diploma or is currently meeting all requirements for graduation
